Ayer's Cherry Pectoral

is an anodyne expectorant for diseases of the Throat and Lungs, and the most efficacious preventive and cure that science has produced. Its value in controlling and curing colds and affections of the Throat and Lungs, and in the protection it affords from these dangerous complaints, cannot be overestimated; and it is adapted to patients of any age or either sex.

AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL strikes at the very foundation of all pulmonary diseases, and rapidly cures Colds, Coughs, Quinsy, Bronchitis, Laryngitis, Asthma, Croup, Sore Throat, Hoarseness, Catharrh and Influenza, and affords the most effectual relief for Whooping-Cough, and Consumption in its advanced stages.

THE CHERRY PECTORAL is especially valuable as a ready remedy for the numerous distressing throat and lung diseases of children; and those who have once known its virtues will never be without it.

The Plenipotentiary Minister sent lately by the King of Prussia to the Vatican, was received to-day by His Holiness in solemn audience. The speeches exchanged on the occasion were most cordial.

LATEST NEWS.

PRESS TELEGRAMS

The following epitome of the latest news by telegraph, from all quarters, is taken from our colleagues—

Montevideo 25th.

In the 2d Battalion, an officer wounded a Brazilian soldier severely. The Brazilian Minister has presented a vigorous protest. The officer is under arrest, and President Santos and Colonel Tajes went to the barracks in person and ordered a court martial.

Editor of Telegrafo, T. Dara, challenged to mortal combat by Oswald Cervetti.

Great storms reported off Rio Grande.

Fray Bentos 25.

Diptheria very bad here; several deaths.

Many foreign visitors to see the saladeros.

Pernambuco 25.

Pacific Company's steamer Iberia arrived.

Tunis revolt completely put down.

Queen Victoria allowed Parnell eight days' liberty at Easter.

Montevideo 26th.

Buzon, the 'disappeared' Commissary, has turned up and is going to Buenos Aires, as he does not feel over safe here.

IMMIGRATION BLUNDERS.

Although every effort to increase European Immigration to this country necessarily enlists our best wishes and support, still we cannot think that the decree of the Minister of the Interior which we give at foot will amount to much, so long as we have the town crowded with French and Italian Immigrants who complain that they cannot get an acre of Government land whereon to start a homestead farm.

To educate the peasantry of Europe in all that concerns the River Plate is as desirable to-day as when the Government sent Dean Dillon to Ireland, yet the Dean's mission amounted to nil, simply because Dr Del Viso, the then Minister of Interior, never thought it worth while to second the Dean's efforts by naming a committee of English, Irish and Scotch men in this city to look after British immigrants, and to give to such committee an area of 20 square leagues to be split up into farms for the British Immigrants.

No man is more capable than Mr Latzina, the chief of our statistical department, of compiling a handbook of the River Plate, but what the European Immigrants want is free land for their little families to make their new homes, and not free books.

The mistake in this business we attribute not so much to the Minister of the Interior as to the President of the Republic, whose offices now being situated on the top of the Post Office, are at such an elevation, that the General views Argentine interests and Argentine affairs from far too high a standpoint. H.E. dreams that by scattering 100,000 copies of Argentine statistics he will secure a fresh flow of European Immigrants, when the very steamers that leave this port take back to Europe poor families who leave because they cannot get a patch of land from the Government sufficient to start a cabbage garden.

In this all important question of Immigration the National Government is up in the clouds. There is nothing sound, practical, or real in the conduct of the Government, and although we have no doubt the present edict has been published with the very best intentions, still the public will accept it as a blind, and as another instance of putting the cart before the horse.

If the Government really desires immigration, let the Minister at once adopt the proper course, and instead of spending millions on washy publications about our great industrial wealth and resources, let the Minister name in this city Immigration committees for each nationality, and composed of merchants and residents of the respective nationalities, to look after their newly arrived countrymen and see that they get a fair start.

If the Government is really in earnest about immigration, why not, instead of spending millions on a new book, give 20 sq. leagues of good land to a committee of British residents in this city, to be divided into free farms of 200 acres each for the poor Irish families that may think proper to come to the River Plate?

Europe is at present flooded with this new kind of immigration literature; we ourselves have 1500 copies of the River Plate Hand Book in Spanish, that we could never sell; although we offered it to the Government at less than what the bookbinding cost, namely, 10 m/c per vol., and the Government refused to take it. Let us hope that Dr Irigoyen will not move his office to the top of the Post Office, and that future measures about immigration will have less moonshine about them than the present, which is as follows:—

To the Director of the Commercial Statistics of the Nation,

The Government considers it advisable that the peasantry of Europe should be informed of the advantages which the Argentine Republic can offer them, both as regards Labour and Capital, fine mild climate, alike favourable to production and long life, the cosmopolitan nature of the population already settled here, and which secures for the immigrant frequent contact with his fellow countrymen, and, finally, the liberality of our political and social institutions, which guarantee to new arrivals the widest exercise of the rights of man; and it is most useful to spread a knowledge of all this amongst those of the agricultural population of Europe that may be anxious to come here. With this view, I am authorised by the President of the Republic to commission you to draw up descriptive statistics of the republic, which, in form of a compendium, will embody all that is referred to above.

The work must include a map of the Republic and a statistical resumen of the varied advantages the country offers to European emigrants, and you are hereby authorised to take the necessary steps to publish without loss of time a good and cheap edition of 100,000 copies of the work in French, German, Italian, English and Spanish.

When the work is finished the Government will pay you a fair price for it.

Bernardo de Irigoyen

LONDON LETTER.

(From our own Correspondent)

March 26th.

By the Humboldt I sent you a report of the meeting at Cannon-street, on Friday 24th inst., of the Nine per cent Treasury Bondholders. I gave the chairman's name as 'Bailly;' kindly read 'Bayley.' There was a short notice of the meeting in a late edition of the Globe on the same evening, and a fuller report may appear in one of the financial papers. I do not see any reports in the Observer of this morning; but it has a leader on the subject in the usual strain. Your Sunday contemporary observes that:—

"The Argentine Republic, notwithstanding its difficulties, has hitherto kept faith with its creditors by maintaining the service of its foreign loans, but the decree by which it proposes to extinguish the whole of its debt would certainly inflict injustice on the holders of the Nine per Cent. Treasury Bonds issued under the law of October, 1876. The holders have, therefore, met and indignantly protested against the redemption of their bonds by drawings, as proposed. The effect of the decree if acted on, would be to pay off these bonds at par, ignoring the premium at which they have arrived in the market, consequent on the previous good faith of the Republic, and on the fact that according to the law under which they were issued they could not be redeemed, except by tender, without the consent of the holders until after the expiration of a certain number of years. The bonds have stood as high in the market as 128, and to pay them off at a 100, in defiance of the stipulation made at the time of their issue, would clearly be a breach of faith. They were issued at a time of great financial difficulty—a few months after the suspension of specie payments by the Government—a fact which, apart from other considerations, should insure justice being done to the holders. By carrying out the decree a manifest injustice would be done to them, while at the same time a blow would be inflicted on the credit of the Argentine Government, which has heretofore been an example of good faith to other South American Republics. On this fact rests the best hope of the bondholders that wiser and juster counsels may prevail and on the success of the negotiations which the committee whom they have appointed will open."

The new Buenos Ayres loan which was subscribed over and over again is already out of sight and mind except to the holders who hope to see it a few days hence quoted at a premium which, considering their rate of issue, will answer their purpose very well, with money nominally at 3 per cent and really at 2½. Since the fall in the rates all South American stocks have risen a trifle. Even Uruguays have gone up ½. Argentine Hard Dollars 3. Railway Loan 1881, 2. 6 per cent 1871, 1. Brazilian 5 per cents 1. Buenos Ayres 6 per cent 70 and 73, 1. Chilians have risen 2. Even Argentine Treasury Bonds remain firm at the prices quoted a fortnight ago, 108 to 110. The time is favourable for new ventures, but I hear of nothing stirring in River Plate business. There is a certain activity still in the Australian and Bombay trade, but as a rule and in the home trade things are decidedly slack. There is absolute distress amongst the working classes in some trades, and at the West End the number of houses to let is at this season a very bad sign. In fact, do what we will, we may have a spurt of trade here and there, but business will never wholly revive until we have had one or two good harvests.

The traffic receipts of the East Argentine railway Company for the four weeks ending February 12 amounted to £2,927. The gross receipts from the 1st January to the 12th of February were £4,483, as compared with £4,257 in 1881.

A telegram from Mexico, published by the New York papers, announces that Count Joanini, the Italian Minister to Mexico, has shot himself with a revolver on account of pecuniary difficulties. Is not the unfortunate gentleman here alluded to the same who was Minister in Buenos Ayres ten or twelve years ago? Gottschalk, the pianist, who was in Buenos Ayres at that time dedicated one of his last compositions to Count Joanini, who was a musical connoisseur of some pretentions.

The Brussels correspondent of the Morning Post says:—The Juge d'Instruction returned to Antwerp to continue his investigations. It has been ascertained that Leon Peltzer, when representing himself as Henry Vaughan, spoke with some difficulty, and could not pronounce his words clearly. This he contrived to do by constantly keeping in his mouth a gutta-percha small ball. The pistol with which the unfortunate Bernays was killed was of a peculiar shape, few had been manufactured, and each had its own number. The house that sold them kept the name of each purchaser. Apparently the pistol had been much used before the murder was committed. Leon Peltzer is now much better, and eats with appetite. He is allowing his beard to grow. He is constantly reading Dickens's novels. Armand Peltzer, who is still in the Pistole section of the prison, studies scientific books, and has already read a considerable number of German and English works.

The Buenos Aires Standard seems to be angry that placards should be posted in Ireland advising the people not to go to South America. For some reason or another the Irish during the past year do not seem to have taken to emigration. It appears that by the statistics on the subject, just published by the Board of Trade, 17,138 fewer emigrants have left Irish ports as compared with 1880. The total number of emigrants from Ireland since 1851 has been 2,715,604, of whom, as a rule, nearly 8-10ths go to the United states, 1-10th to Great Britain, and the remaining tenth to the British Colonies and other ports, including South and Central America. It is curious that considering the greater affinity, in regard to race and religion between the Irish and Spanish American, fewer Irish than English and Scotch have emigrated to South America. Moreover, during the past year (1881) only 1876 persons emigrated from the United Kingdom to all South and Central America. They are classified as follows:—

English	Men	858	1271
	Women	413
Scotch	Men	171	256
	Women	85
Irish	Men	142	249
	Women	117
			1776

The total net emigrarion from the United Kingdom during 1881 was 190,295. That is to say, 243,002 persons left the old country and 53,707 returned. The excess shows a great increase on former years, and the increase has been steady since the years 1876 and 1877. In 1876 the proportion of native emigrants to the population of the United Kingdom was 0.12 per cent., in 1879 0.37 per cent., and in 1881 0.55 per cent. The statistics are not sufficiently perfect, nor do they extend in a classified form over a long enough period to form any reliable theory as to the causes of emigration; but sufficient is known to prove that contrary to what at first sight might have been supposed, the ratio of emigration increases in proportion to the prosperity of the old country. In bad times emigration comes to a stop. The obvious reason is that at all times there are numbers of people disposed to try the chances of bettering their position abroad, and only in prosperous times can they afford to emigrate.

The English and Scotch emigrants are in general of a better class than the Irish. Hence it is that some of the former can afford to try their fortunes in different parts of South America, whilst the Itish are dependent on their friends abroad, who are mostly in the U. States.

The Canadian Government has, I see, just voted $90,000 for emigration buildings at Winnipeg and other places. In that way, and by grants of land and assistance in forming agricultural colonies, the Irish emigrant may be attracted to Buenos Aires, and he is worth looking after, as the emigration clauses in the new Land Act have failed, like the purchase clauses; the Irishman will do nothing of himself and by himself. He requires to be looked after, and the landlords are so anxious to get rid of him that they are going seriously into the ways and means of the emigration question. As for the purchases clauses, Mr. W. H. Smith, who is likely before many years are over to be a Prime Minister, when the Conservatives are in power, as he is the only man of business in his party, proposes a scheme of peasant proprietorship, which a few months ago the most advanced Radical or even Socialist would not have hoped for as practicable in this century and in this country. It is proposed that the peasant become at once possessed of the fee-simple of his holding charged a certain rent, not more than at present, for a certain number of years, the landlord receiving a land debenture with interest guaranteed by the State. It is not possible to explain the details of a scheme not yet projected, and which is of a class formed by actuaries and often proposed for the extinction of pauperism and many other evils of individualism which the Conservatives may blindly abolish in their future victories over an old-fashioned Liberalism of the last generation.

EDITOR'S TABLE.

The Iberia's mails, telegraphed to the Nacion from Pernambuco, bring the rather unexpected news that Mr Parnell M. P. was released from prison for 8 days at Easter. Perhaps this may prove the first step towards the permanent release of all the suspects.

The new Government scheme to publish all about this country in the principal languages of Europe, in order to foment emigration to these shores, looks well on paper, but is not half so good as a proper Homestead Law would be. A very large proportion of the class to which Mr Latzina is to address himself does not know how to read.

Messrs Scheiner & Lob, the enterprising proprietors of the 'Germania' almacen, at Moore's corner, opposite the London and River Plate Bank, presented to the Standard larder yesterday some Argentine Cheddar cheese, and we have no hesitation whatever in saying that it is fully equal to the best made in England, and we invite those very few who may doubt what we say (there is not one Standard reader in 3,000 that ever doubts us) to come to lunch to-day at 1 p.m. sharp, and try this truly delicious cheese.

Last night the first distribution of prizes at the Revd. Mr Spilsbury's school in Flores took place. The occasion was a truly interesting one, and we hope to give further particulars to-morrow. We hear that the progress made by the boys is something quite remarkable, the Revd. Principal being to the manner born as an imparter of knowledge.

The Pedagogues' Conference is becoming the great attraction for those who require a good laugh. On Tuesday there was great fun owing to several Knights of the Birch making pathetic speeches about teachers being left unpaid till they were half-starved. We deeply regret to record that this assertion, which is by no means far from the truth, provoked hearty laughter instead of tears. One pedagogue brought Mr Van Gelderen to his feet with a spring by stating that in the Normal Schools everything went by favour from the masters. Mr Van G. protested so energetically that he was instantly pulled up by the President, Sr Varela, who told him to protest as much as he liked, but to avoid personalities. This was the principal 'incident' of the sitting. Baron Macuhubas made a magnificent speech. Professor Fitzsimons of Corrientes obtained leave to absent himself from the Congress.

The fencing bout at the Exhibition will take place on a platform to be raised in the concert hall on the first Sunday in May. A good fencing match is worth seeing.

Our subscribers and readers did not accept too well the compliment we paid them yesterday in refraining from translating the Latin inscription on the British Legion clock. Several declared to us that the whole thing was Greek to them, except the word 'Bare-Bones.' This is the lamentable result of their having devoted too much time to Homer and neglected Virgil and Horace when at school. We fear in this instance it is too late to mend. The next Latin inscription we have occasion to quote we'll put into Greek for them.

We see another extremely shady 'procurador' story in the papers. A Chivilcoy man stuck for 5000 m|c in the most unblushing manner conceivable.

We received yesterday the continuation of volume 1 of Dr Zeballos's 'Descripcion Amena de la Republica Argentina.' It is most interesting reading.

The archœological collection just added to the Oriental section of the Exhibition is well worth seeing. It has been arranged by the talented Mr Stock Exchange (Bourse), Sub-Director of the Museum in Montevideo, and a naturalist of rising eminence.

The mad-cap new Capital scheme is going through the Chambers at telegram speed. The Deputies have now adopted the report of the Senate, so as not to lose time. The unfortunate tax-payers!

We take the following queer story about that queer personage Sarah Bernhardt from the London World: 'A queer lawsuit is in store for the Parisians. Some two years ago Sarah Bernhardt, the 'garrande artiste' and universal genius, took it into her head to be photographed reclining at full length in the famous ebony coffin, padded with white satin, about which we have heard so much. The photographer, Melandri, undertook to satisfy the lady's caprice, and obtained some excellent proofs, Sarah having simulated to perfection the stillness of death. Thereupon, Doña Sol said to Melandri, 'I will make a bargain with you. Swear to me that you will not sell any of these photographs until after my death.' 'After your death?' * * * 'Oh, it will happen sooner than you expect. I promise you to die within a year from now. I am not joking. I have a presentiment, and my presentiments never deceive me. Furthermore, at the end of the year, if I am still in this world, I authorize you to sell as many of the photographs as you please. Melandri consented to this strange contract and executed faithfully his part of the bargain; but Sarah, happily for her admirers, neglected to keep her promise. Melandri wrote to Sarah while she was at New York reminding her that she had no longer a right to behold the light of the sun. 'Patience', telegraphed Sarah; 'at end of American engagement will fulfil engagement with you.' Melandri waited; but when Sarah returned from Russia a few days ago he again reminded Doña Sol that she had no right to behold the light of the sun. 'Patience,' wrote Sarah once more. 'I have promised to create three new pieces at Paris; after that you can sell the photographs.' But Melandri's stock of patience is exhausted and he has consequently referred his case to the Tribunal of Commerce of Paris."

We see that the Health Committee of the Corporation have nothing better to do than going back on Carnival, foolery and reporting about the size of 'pomos,' duration of the masked ball season, etc. It is really enough to turn the public's hair as grey as a badger's to see this sort of nonsense going on while not a thought is given to the Riachuelo which threatens the city with a pestilence. Yesterday and the day before the poisoned fish were floating about on the stream in millions.

There was a rumour yesterday of another revolutionary fizzle in Monte Caseros, and the foreigners in the place much alarmed and about to ask the National Government for protection.

It is said that the petition of the people of San Luis to have the railway opened to traffic at once cannot be granted, as the bridge over the river is only a provisional one, and it would be perilous to send a passenger train over it.

The Minister of Foreign Affairs' saloons in the Government House are to be done up in gorgeous Louis XV. style, to enable him to receive the Diplomatic Corps properly.

The Government surveyors on the Rio Negro are said to be suffering from cold and short commons, two very disagreeable things. 'Peons' are also getting scarce with them. A Carlow subscriber told us yesterday that this river was originally named by an Irishman, after the two Blackwaters in Ireland. Perhaps so.

A prodigious increase in the business of the Rosario Post Office during the first quarter of the year is reported. This shows how the Interior is growing. The employees in the office are crying out that their salaries ought to grow with the work, but, up to the present, they have been 'crying in the Desert.'

The report about an epidemic of typhoid fever at San Isidro is all nonsense: there have been a few deaths from it, nothing more.

Enault, the dentist, who used to keep his red and gold coach in Standard Court when here, is now in Panama, drawing teeth by the dozen, and selling 'malachite' by the barrel to all the fools up there.

Governor Roach arrived yesterday at the Central Station from Ayacucho, and will resume the reins of office to-day. H.E. looks well after his trip.

In the Plaza Once the carpenters, painters etc. are busy arranging and adorning the Seccion Rural of the Exhibition, in the Calle Piedad, between Centro America and Castelli, facing the mill. We read the names of Plomer's estancia (Lozano Hnos) Estancias del Venado y San Felipe (Senillosa Hnos) and Cabaña Bernardino Rivadavia (Fdo. Brunkhorst) over some of the stables, beside those of Chas, Molina, Pellegrini, Urioste, Amaral and a lot of others will exhibit their best animals. 20 fine rambouillets of Homeyer's cabaña Kanzin, Pommerania, are waiting since 3½ months for the 'inauguracion infallible' of the Show, which will after all take place next Sunday. More than 100 rams and sheep have already arrived in the Once; the show will prove to be far over the average of those of the Rural Society, and the judges will have a very difficult task in awarding the prizes. Too little importance was attached to improving the breed of our sheep in former years, but recently great progress has been made in this direction, and the average of our wool clip will soon beat Australia in every respect. We want more Chases, Oliveras, Brunkhorsts and Senillosas, one of whose cabañas is of more worth to the country than the fine arts section, the millinery, tapestry and confectionery shows and all the fencing and pedagogical congressing together which is and will be going on in the 'zinc palace' of the exhibition. After the rams' show, which will last 10 days, besides the time for removing the animals etc, the horse show commences, and last the cattle.

Schoolboys here are awfully cheeky. The medical students of Dr Peralta's class asked him on Tuesday to break it up early, as they wanted to see Dr Arca off in the packet. Dr Peralta replied by keeping the youngsters at his lecture for exactly double the usual time, thus giving them a sharp lesson and saving his colleague Dr Arca from being bored by them.

This is the land of medals. We received yesterday the grand silver medal and diploma commemorative of the federalization of this city. Both are beautiful, the latter especially, lithograped by Mr Kraft of Calle Reconquista. Europe could not beat it.

There was a flutter in Pedagogue circles yesterday owing to the decree of the National Board of Education, ordering all teachers, male and female, to return to their duties and give up 'spouting' at the Conference in the Exhibition. Most excellent decree!

We feel much pleasure in welcoming to Buenos Ayres Mr. Becquerel, estanciero, and family, of Baradero, Mr. R. d'Hunval of Cachari, and Mr. Hector d'Hunval and family of Cardo, B.O., who have arrived to see the Exhibition. We wish them a pleasant stay in town.

The passengers who went down to catch the Pacific steamer Aconcagua for Europe had to stay in Montevideo yesterday, as she had not arrived up to 5 p.m.

Louis the Eleventh is announced for Saturday night at the Politeama, a brother of the great Salvini playing the king.

There was no quorum of the National Senate at its preparatory meeting yesterday. The Deputies held their first sitting.

The Carracciolo will sail for the Pacific on Sunday, which we suppose will be the drop-scene on the wearisome Volpi business.

The province of Salta has refused a branch of the Mortgage Bank. Queer, but perhaps wise, province.

ON 'CHANGE.

April 26th

Patacons	25.—
Cedulas A	100½
Do E	84½
National Bank Shares..	110½

This was a very brisk day on 'Change, and the hall was crowded at an early hour; the great speculation is of course centred in Nat. Bank Shares, but to-day there was more doing in Cedulas and even in Deuda Amortizable there was an effort to place 100,000 at 10.

Cedulas Series A are sold to get money to pay for Bank Shares and are down to 100½, and Series E were sold to-day for end of May at 84½.

Discount brokers find money freely offering on Bank Shares at 12 o/o at a valuation of 90, and they say that a new Syndicate has already secured 600,000 pats to carry stock.

The Nat. Bank Share market ruled very buoyant to-day, and some of the great brokers were great buyers. The whole ring and the whole market is for a rise, and as they say the market for the month is greatly oversold, as a matter of course thousands of shares have yet to be bought to close the month's liquidation. The Tampa article on the Bank was the talk of the whole Bolsa, and many consider our colleague's remarks called for and to the point. Money was taken up to-day in very large amounts by 3 or 4 new parties who have since last night entered the market as buyers, and it is plain to most people that if the great Syndicate now operates for a rise we shall see the shares higher. The shares opened at 110½ cash, only 60 shares sold; the great speculation is of course for the end of the month and for May. Still, however, if the bears operated for a fall they should throw more shares cash on the market. Prices for end of month opened at 110½ and kept advancing all day, closing at 111½; the sales amounted to 3,050 shares. For the end of May 2,200 shares sold, opening at 112½, closing at 113½. Total day's sales, 6,310 shares.

It was stated on 'Change as fact that Dr. Romero, Minister of Hacienda, is determined at all hazards to pay off the whole 9 o/o Treasury Bill Debt at par, and thus finally settle this rather grave question. Congress will be called on to vote the funds, and a new loan will of course be the means employed to raise the amount, which is some 4 million pats.

The National Bank discounted freely yesterday, and all the private banks are discounting.

There is great talk of a meeting of creditors held the other day in which the assets they say will not give 10 o/o.

The Exchange market rules duller than ever, bills offering on London at 42½ no takers, and bills on Paris and Antwerp also offering but not passed; it seems there will be nothing of importance done in Exchange until within a few days of the sailing of the Royal Mail.

Gold has been more looked for within the last few days, it is supposed from the necessities of sellers of 4 months ago, who now need the gold to pay their obligations. The whole market watches with much interest the project before the Provincial Bank to pay in paper gold 'vencimentos', and the brokers say when the Provincial Bank establishes this rule, the other banks will follow.

We heard on Change that Mr Aberg is the architect named to draw up the plans for the new building in Calle Reconquista for the English Bank of the R. Plate.

The branch of the English Bank of the River Plate in Rosario will very shortly be opened.

The sales at the ring were as follows:—

Gold—
Nothing done.
Cedulas—
For cash A 13,000 at 100½-¼
For cash E 29,100 at 85-84½-½
For April 30th E 10,000 at 84½
For May 31st E 40,000 at 84½

Nat. Bank Shares—

For May 31st 2,200 shares 112½-½-½-113-½
Sales, 5,310.

At afterhours the National Bank Share market rose very steadily, and it was plain that parties were buying in as quietly as they could to close up their liquidation. When at 3 o'clock the market ruled sellers at 113 publicly, there were private buyers at 113 for all that could be picked up. At 4 o'clock the market still further advanced, and sales were made for end of month at 114, and for May at 115; market closing buyers

Mr Joseph Drysdale, who has just arrived back from the magnificent Drysdale estancia in 9 de Julio, was enveloped in friends; he reports the outside camps in splendid condition, abundance of grass, and cattle and sheep very fat. All the 9 de Julio lands are being stocked, fenced and settled on.

At afterhours a large lot of Cedulas, some 70,000, were sold at par; the seller is putting, like very many others, his money into Nat. Bank Shares. In fact all stocks feel the pressure of the Bank Share market, and millions are going into the shares at 110 and thereabouts.

The fine lot of wool at the Once station belonging to Mr Morgan was sold to-day by the Messrs Duggan at reserved price, supposed to be from 92 to 95.

Several buyers for good first class camps are offering in the market, one party has 5 millions to put into estancia lands, and as yet can find nothing to buy.

A large lot of Montevidean wool, some 10,000 ar, reported sold down there, and bought for account of a house here.

Rioja Lottery tickets were hanging up today in all the exchange shop windows. When the Municipal lottery begins, this Rioja business will be done up. The market is now overrun with lottery tickets

Messrs Becker & Costa sold to-day 4000 potro hides at 16½ rls.

The death of Dn Carlos Wendorff, a well-known German broker, was announced; deceased had a wide circle of friends in the market and was a resident here for last 14 years; he died from a drying up of the spine.

The sales at afterhours were—

The following is the memorandum of Dr. D. Faustino Jorge published in circular form in London:—

In virtue of the law of the Argentine Congress of the 21st Sept., 1880, the service of the External Debt of the Province of B. Aires became an obligation of the National Government from the day on which the city of B. Aires, with the consent of the Legislature of that Province, was federalised, and declared the permanent Capital of the Argentine Republic.

The Province of Buenos Aires was thenceforward liable only for its Internal Debt, which consisted, on the 31st May, 1881, of the following items:—

	$ m/c.
Fondos publicos primitivos ..	6,760,621
Fondos publicos, law of December, 1872	88,730,000
Popular Loan	47,558,000
Provincial Treasury Bonds ..	68,529,094
Debt of the Government to the Bank of the Province..	267,600,425
	$479,178,140 or £ 3,927,689

For the yearly service of these liabilities, which bear different rates of interest, say 6, 7½, and 8 o/o per annum, and have sinking funds varying from 1 to 10 o/o per annum, the Province of Buenos Aires will require the following sums:—

	$ m/c.
For the Fondos publicos primitivos	474,804
Fondos publicos law of Dec., 1872	8,600,000
Popular Loan	8,790,550
Provincial Treasury Bonds	12,335,236
Debt to the Bank of the Province	15,500,000
	$45,600,590 or £ 373,775

For the purpose of consolidating the debt of the Government of Buenos Aires to the Bank of the Province, and of placing the interest and Sinking Fund of its debt on a uniform footing, the law of the 6th July, 1881, was sanctioned, authorising the issue of Bonds, bearing 6 o/o interest and an accumulative Sinking Fund of 1 o/o, to the amount of $20,000,000=£4,098,300.

These Bonds, when issued, will constitute the only 'External' Debt for which the Province of Buenos Aires will have to provide out of its own resources: and its 'Internal' Debt will be reduced to the following amounts:

	$ m/c.
Fondos publicos primitivos	6,760,621
Internal Loan of 1881 for the Riachuelo Works.....	37,500,000
	$44,260,621 or £ 360,824

The service of this debt requires:—

	$ m/c.
For the Fondos publicos primitivos	474,804
Internal Loan of 1881..	3,510,000
	$3,984,804 or £ 32,672

It follows, therefore, that after the issue of the above mentioned Bonds, the entire 'Internal' and 'External' Debt of the Province of B. Aires will amount to £4,459,124, requiring for the service of its Interest and Sinking Fund £319,550 per annum, which is £54,225 less than the sum required at present.

The financial condition of the Province of B. Aires is prosperous. Its revenue is fully equal to its expenditure, and besides its ordinary revenue from taxes, it has private property to the value of more than £10,000,000, consisting, among other things, of—

1—More than 2,700,000 hectares of land.
2—The sums invested in the Port of Riachuelo.
3—The Western Railroad, which has 350 kilometres in working order and 110 kilometres in course of construction, and which produces an annual net profit of about £180,000.
4—The Bank of the Province, with a capital of £5,850,000, and an annual net profit of from £350,000 to £500,000.

Of the £4,098,300 Bonds now authorised, only one-half, or £2,049,200, will be issued at present.

TESTIMONIALS.
From Mr. JOHN J. MAHON, Capilla del Señor, June 29, 1881.—"The dip which you sent me I used according to directions, and I can assure you that it gave the desired result. During four years of practical experience of curing scab in sheep, I have seen many specifics used, and I consider Gilliard's the only one that gives complete satisfaction. It improves the quality and promotes the growth of the wool. For efficiency, economy and facility of application, I prefer it to any dip I have used.
From Mr. JAMES M. THOMAS, Estancia Santa Ines, Monte, June 29, 1881.—Having given a good trial to Gilliard's Dip, I have much pleasure in bearing my testimony to its valuable quality as a Sheep Dip. It destroys all insect life with which sheep are infected, mixes readily in cold water, does not injure the hands, and softens all hard parts. I shall strongly recommend it whenever an opportunity offers. As regards the cheapness, it should command a good sale.
From Mr. Wm. Petty, Estancia Caro, Colonia, Sept. 20, 1881—
"I feel great pleasure in informing you that the sheep dip supplied by you to me under the name of Gillard's Sheep Dip has had surprising results on my English long-woolled rams; it has kept them entirely free from scab after only twice using it, although those rams have been constantly running in a flock of scabby sheep. I intend for the first time to give it a trial with the whole of my English breed of sheep as soon as I have them shorn, as I feel satisfied I shall with that did keep scab out of the flock."
From Messrs Patrick Mahon, junr., Ciriaco Morales, and James Murray, Capilla del Señor, Sept. 18, 1881—
"It gives us great pleasure to inform you that, after giving a good trial to Gillard's non-poisonous sheep dip, we can pronounce it to be the best specific we have used as yet, and we are fully determined for the future to use no other remedy."

STATE OF IRELAND

MILITARY CONFLICT AT GALWAY.

Galway, March 26th

A military disturbance, concerning which exaggerated reports have obtained circulation, took place here this week. The detachments of the 88th and 94th Regiments under the new system constitute one regiment. The 94th, forming the second battalion of the Connaught Rangers are stationed here, and some companies of the 84th Regiment also form part of the garrison of the town. About six years ago some ill-feeling sprang up between the 84th and 94th when they were quartered at Preston, and though very few men of either regiment of that time now wear the military uniform, it is supposed that the men of both corps at the present time inherit to some extent the hostility of those between whom the quarrel originally commenced. No manifestation of this feeling, however, took place prior to this week, and it is by no means certain that it actually had anything to do with the collision that did take place between the respective corps.

On St. Patrick's Day the officer commanding the troops here, on the suggestion of the officers of Constabulary, and with a view to keeping the peace of the town, had the men of the respective corps called into barracks. An impression prevails that the Connaught Rangers and their linked battalion attributed this order to the action of the 84th, and that they determined to resent it on the first opportunity On the other hand, the Connaught Rangers say that this was not the origin of the row, that the real cause was that some men of the 84th made observation in the street to the 88th, reflecting on them as an Irish regiment. On Thursday night last a number of men of both regiments met at Eyre-square and came to blows. So serious an appearance did the quarrel assume, that Major Lees, the officer in command of the troops, in the temporary absence of Colonel De Montmorency, sent out pickets of twenty men armed with rifles and fixed bayonets, but without ammunition, and took the combatants to their respective quarters. Major Lees, in his report to the Assistant Adjutant General, states that the collision was easily suppressed, and that the officer who commanded the picket reports that it was only of a trivial character.

On Friday night a more serious disturbance occurred. While taking one of the Connaught Rangers prisoner, the picket of the Second York and Lancaster Regiment was attacked by a party of 88th: and the civilians joined in the attack. An attempt at rescue was made. One of the men of the 84th was severely cut on the head and stunned, and his bayonet was taken from him. One of the Connaught Rangers received a bayonet wound. Major Lees adds: 'As the sympathies of the people are already on the side of the Connaught Rangers, and in fear of further rioting, I had 120 men ready to turn out should there be any further disturbance. The men of the Connaught Rangers in town, as well as our men, were collected and marched into barracks at Renmore.' He also states that the Sub-Inspector of Police here stated to the Acting Adjutant, Captain Power, that from what he heard from the police, the Connaught Rangers were the aggressors, having gone out that night for the purpose of creating a disturbance, and that the police are in consequence on the alert.

Since these disturbances Major Lees has issued orders confining the men to barracks after seven o'clock in the evening, and men are kept in readiness to act as pickets in case of emergency. Last evening there was absolutely no trace of what have been reported as military riots, and to-day Galway is as quiet as it generally is on a Sunday afternoon.

Dublin,

The surprise of the Moonlighters in their attack on a publican's house in the co. Tipperary on Thursday night has given the midnight raiders a lesson they are not likely to forget. Mr Jas. Ryan is a national school teacher, residing in a mountainous district called Drumban, about seven miles from Thurles. Attached to the public-house, which is kept by his mother-in-law, is a farm rented by Ryan, who, with his wife and seven children lives on the licensed premises. Up till recently he was a prominent Land Leaguer; but since the suppression of the organisation he appears to have separated himself from its sympathisers, and some days ago he paid his rent. For this offence it was determined by the Moonlight gang in the district to surprise him in the night, punish him, and demolish the house, He was apprehensive of this midnight assault, and the police had timely information of the attack. Between eleven and twelve o'clock on Thursday night three constables, named Broderick, Tivenan, and Balfour, were concealed a few yards from Ryan's house, in the haggard, which runs parallel to the road. They had not been long there before they heard the tramp grow louder, and presently the party of Moonlighters, supposed to number thirty, passed them. Suddenly the person in command gave the order to halt and surround Ryan's house. Thereupon they commenced a brisk attack. The windows were riddled with bullets, the locks of the doors were fired into and smashed; even iron plates on the inside of the doors were perforated. The assailants, for the purpose of striking further terror into the minds of the occupants of the house, yelled, and were just forcing the principal door with crowbars when they were alarmed by the rattle of buckshot from the rifles of the three constabulary men. The Moonlighters returned the fire in the direction from whence the shots had come, but they failed to hit the police, who from their concealment repeatedly fired. At length the Moonlighters broke into flight, the constabulary men, pursuing them and firing at intervals. But with these hillmen the chase along the mountain road in pitch darkness was unequal, and the police gave up the pursuit after a quarter of an hour. Returning to Ryan's house they found lying on the ground, dangerously wounded in the breast, a farmer's son named Dwyer, aged 19, who lives at Upper Church, three miles from where he was discovered. Close beside him they picked up a double-barrelled fowling-piece, where he had evidently dropped it when struck. At the time the policeman's bullet hit Dwyer he was standing at the gate which divides the stable-yard from the house. When the police found the wounded man the latter earnestly begged to send for the priest, as he believed he was dying. His request was complied with, and in about an hour the Rev Mr Prout arrived and heard his confession, Subsequently Dwyer was removed to the poorhouse infirmary at Thurles. Paralysis has set in and there is no hope of his recovery. Fortunately no one in Ryan's house was injured. Most of the shots of the attacking party were directed to one of the rooms over the shop occupied by three children, who had a miraculous escape, as several of the bullets were found near the bed.—Archbishop Croke, at mass yesterday and to-day, denounced the outrage in strong language. The police believe that several persons were wounded by their fire, as there are tracks of blood for some distance along the mountain road, and in one place there was a pool of blood.

This morning, between five and six o'clock, the dead body of a sailor named Peter Lippoga, aged 45, belonging to the ship Bacchus, and a native of Finland, was discovered lying on the North Wall extension of the Midland Railway line, opposite the Whitworth Hospital. The top of his head was fractured, but the body had no sign of other injury. One of the deceased's clogs was found five yards distant from the body. The railway line along here is a deep cutting, with high walls, and it is difficult to perceive how the sailor got on the rails. It is thought that he must have walked along the line from the North Wall Quay, a distance of a mile and a half when he was caught by a passing train, or that he wandered along the adjacent road, and, endeavouring to cross the Wall, which on the road side is only five or six feet in height, but on the other side makes a drop to the rails of forty feet, fell on his head. Deceased left his ship in the evening for the purpose of going into the city to purchase clothes. A sum of 24s. was found on the body.

Mr Brooks, M.P., accompanied by two of the principal members of the Dublin Corn Exchange, on Saturday waited on the Chief Secretary in Dublin with a document signed by over one hundred members of the Corn and Stock Exchange, all commercial men of high standing, stating that they believed the arrest of Mr Rorke must have been brought about through misapprehension, as they did not believe he would be guilty of any offence which would bring him under the operation of the Protection Act, and that his release would give general satisfaction. Mr Forster saw Mr Brooks only and said he would give the document every consideration.

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne

(Ex Army Medical Staff)

IS THE ORIGINAL AND ONLY GENUINE.

CAUTION.—Vice-Chancellor Sir W. P. Wood stated that Dr. J Collis Browne was undoubtedly the inventor of Chlorodyne; that the story of the defendant, Freeman, being the inventor was deliberately untrue, which he regretted had been sworn to. Eminent hospital physicians of London stated that Dr. J. Collis Browne was the discoverer of Chlorodyne; that they prescribe it largely, and mean no other than Dr. Browne's.—See Times, July 13th 1864.

The Public, therefore, are cautioned against using any other than

Dr. J. Collis Browne's Chlorodyne.

REMEDIAL USES AND ACTION.

This invaluable remedy produces quiet, refreshing sleep, relieves pain, calms the system, restores the deranged functions, and stimulates healthy action of the secretions of the body, without creating any of those unpleasant results attending the use of opium. Old and young may take it at all hours and times when requisite. Thousands of persons testify to its marvellous good effects and wonderful cures, while medical men extol its virtues most extensively.

CHLORODYNE is admitted by the profession to be the most wonderful and valuable remedy ever discovered.

CHLORODYNE is the best remedy known for coughs, consumption, bronchitis, asthma.

CHLORODYNE effectually checks and arrests those too often fatal diseases—Diphtheria, Fever, Croup, Ague.

CHLORODYNE acts like a charm in Diarrhœa, and is the only specific in Cholera and Dysentery.

CHLORODYNE effectually cuts short all attacks of Epilepsy, Hysteria, Palpitation and Spasms.

CHLORODYNE is the only palliative in Neuralgia, Rheumatism, Gout, Cancer, Toothache, Meningitis, &c.

From Symes & Co., Pharmaceutical Chemists, Medical Hall, Simla, Jan. 5th 1880. To J. T. Davenport, Esq., 33, Great Russell Street, Bloomsbury, London "Dear Sir, we embrace this opportunity of congratulating you upon the wide-spread reputation this justly-esteemed medicine, Dr. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE, has earned for itself, not only in Hindostan, but all over the East. As a remedy of general utility, we much question whether a better is imported into the country, and we shall be glad to hear of its finding a place in every Anglo-Indian home. The other brands, we are happy to say, are now relegated to the native bazaars, and, judging from their sale, we fancy their sojourn there will be but evanescent. We could multiply instances ad infinitum of the extraordinary efficacy of DR. COLLIS BROWNE'S CHLORODYNE in Diarrhœa and Dysentery, Spasms, Cramps, Neuralgia, the Vomiting of Pregnancy, and as a general sedative, that have occurred under our personal observation during many years. In Choleraic Diarrhœa, and even in the more terrible forms of Cholera itself, we have witnessed its surprisingly controlling power. We have never used any other form of this medicine than Collis Browne's, from a firm conviction that it is decidedly the best, and also from a sense of duty we owe to the profession and the public, as we are of opinion that the substitution of any other than Collis Browne's is a "deliberate breach of faith on the part of the chemist to prescriber and patient alike." We are, sir, faithfully yours, Symes & Co., Members of the Pharm. Society of Great Britain. His Excellency the Viceroy, a Chemists."

Extract from the General Board of Health, London, as to its efficacy in Cholera—"So strongly are we convinced of the immense value of this remedy that we cannot too forcibly urge the necessity of adopting it in all cases."

CAUTION—None genuine without the words 'Dr J Collis Browne' on the Government Stamp. Overwhelming medical testimony accompanies each bottle.
